

1. Look at the five different languages below. What, if anything, do you know about each one? Do you think they are easy or difficult to learn?

- a) Spanish
- b) Esperanto
- c) French
- d) Japanese
- e) Klingon

2. Listen to four people. Match each speaker to the language in one that they are learning now. There is one language that you don't need.

Speaker 1: Speaker 2:
Speaker 3: Speaker 4:

3. Listen again and match the speakers and the correct information. There are two pieces of information for each speaker.

- A. was not very successful with the first foreign language they learned.
- B. is learning a language because they like the idea behind the language.
- C. wants to learn a language to understand more about the people who speaks it.
- D. is learning a language because it helps them professionally.
- E. started learning a language because of one special person.
- F. tells people they meet interesting facts about the language they are learning.
- G. was interested in a language from a TV programme before they started learning a real language.
- H. knows three or more languages

Speaker 1: _____ Speaker 2: _____
Speaker 3: _____ Speaker 4: _____