Police Report

Last March 2nd the police arrested a man. They asked him a lot of questions about the previous weekend and this is what he answered:

"Last weekend I travelled to Paris. I was in France for two days. I travelled by plane and at the airport I changed some money and rented a small car. In Paris I stayed in a big hotel in the centre of the city. I visited three museums but I didn´t visit the Louvre because there were a lot of people. On Saturday evening a friend invited me to the cinema and then to a restaurant. On Sunday I cleaned the car, returned it and travelled back to Buenos Aires."

But the police discovered that the man lied. Complete the sentences with the truth:
