

SHOULD

NAME: _____

We use should to express advisability

subject

should

verb

...

subject

should

verb

...

I
you
he she
we they should

call listen
exercise
have think turn off

my mom today.
to your teacher.
more often.
a party.
about a holiday.
the music.

©14-2021 Global Online Language Services Inc.

OFF2CLASS

Use should + a verb below

go

water

buy

study

1. We _____ a ticket to France. We need a holiday.
2. It's an excellent film. You _____ and see it.
3. The garden is dry. I _____ the plants.
4. Mia has an exam tomorrow so she _____ this evening.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Use should + a verb below

save

stay

buy

visit

5. It's rainy today. We _____ inside the house.
6. If you have time, you _____ the museum.
7. You can't eat all the cake now... you _____ some of it for later.
8. You _____ that hat. It looks great on you.

I think... and I don't think...

We often use I think... should... and I don't think... should...

I think you should come with us to the cinema =
I think it is a good idea.

I don't think you should smoke =
I think it is not a good idea.

Do you think I should buy this shirt? =
Do you think it is a good idea?

Use think and don't think below

9. It's not important. I _____ you should worry about it.
10. You seem sad. I _____ we should do something fun.
11. Roger's sister is lazy. I _____ she should do some exercise.
12. It's raining today. I _____ we should go to the beach.
13. You look tired. I _____ you should study tonight.

Use think/don't think + should + a verb below

get

phone

take

buy

14. Sally's boyfriend is so rude. I _____ another boyfriend.
(she)
15. That painting is beautiful! And only $80! I _____ it. (you)
16. It's 11:30pm. I _____ your mom now. Do it tomorrow.
(you)
17. We are running very late. I _____ a taxi. (we)