Name-Surname .....Class. .....No. .....

Unit 7 : page 88ข้อ 4และ Page 89 ข้อ 6

Direction : Fill in the blanks with SO, SUCH, or THAT

Focus

3 Talk with a partner.

What happened to Bob?

He was so confused that he left before the lecture was over.

Oh, dear. Why?

He said it was such a complex issue that he didn't understand it.

He left? I'm so shocked that I have to sit down.

Well, it was such an unusual talk that a lot of people left early.

4 Fill in the blanks with so, such, or that.

1. I was _____ frightened _____ I had to go home.
2. It was _____ a surprising comment _____ I didn't know how I should reply.
3. That was _____ a good lecture _____ I want to hear it again!
4. Do you think the audience was _____ tired _____ they didn't clap?
5. Don't be _____ quiet _____ they can't hear you!
6. I'm _____ a shy person _____ I really never share my opinions.

Grammar

5 Look at the table.

Causative Verbs
Causative verbs are used to give a job or responsibility to someone else.
Causative Verbs	Usages	Examples
let	to allow something to happen or to give permission for something to happen	The teacher lets her assistant explain the topic to the other students. She let him explain it to the other students.
make	to cause something to happen or to force something to happen	The government makes important policies. The government made an important policy.
have	to ask someone to do something or request something to happen	We will have them examine the evidence again. They had the students examine the evidence again.

6 Unscramble.

NOTE: The present, past, and past participle forms of let do not change.

1. the evidence / me explain / Please don't make / very complex. / to you, it is

_____

2. they didn't let / me attend / I was so / the lecture. / disappointed that

_____

3. It was / it for hours. / issue that / such a complex / talk about / I made them

_____

4. had the lecturer / to her afterwards. / explain the / She was so / confused that we / complex issue

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS