The Wolf and the Shepherds

One day a wolf (49)____ away from a farm for trying to steal some of the (50)____ for food. Later that week, the wolf came back to the farm hoping to find some food. He peeped inside the house and found the farmer and his family (51)____ on lamb roast.

"Aha!", he thought. "If I did the same thing that the farmer and his family are doing now, I (52)____ would be shunted and chased, or even killed for killing a weak, innocent lamb."

Moral: We are quick to judge and condemn others for what they do, but see nothing wrong in doing so (53)____.

49	A	chased	B	was chased	C	had been chased	D	had chased
50	A	sheep	B	sheeps	C	ships	D	ship
51	A	were feasting	B	feasted	C	feasting	D	being feasted
52	A	would do	B	do	C	had done	D	did
53	A	ourselves	B	itself	C	ourself	D	themselves

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The Lost City of Caral

Why had the city of Caral been built?

Human civilization was not born in bloodshed and battle. Great things can come from peace.

But (54)_____ this theory, archaeologists needed to find a "mother city": the very first big to appear in the word. After years of searching, they (55)_____ an enormous pyramid in the Casma Valley, in the Peruvian desert.

Today´s modern city is a symbol of human civilization. But the origins of cities have long been a mystery to scientists. For more than a hundred thousand years, human beings either wandered the word in small family groups, or lived in tiny villages. And then, suddenly, all this changed. All over the word, in Egypt, Mesopotamia, China, India, Central America and Perú, people started to built cities.

But then an archaeologist (56)_____ Ruth heard of some mysterious (57)_____ mounds further out in the desert. She set (58)_____alone to find them and found the remains of six pyramids, arranged around a central plaza. It was the lost city of Caral.

54	A	to prove	B	proving	C	having proved	D	being proven
55	A	had been discovered	B	were discovering	C	have discovered	D	discovered
56	A	calling	B	called	C	being called	D	having called
57	A	unexplaining	B	having unexplained	C	unexplained	D	being unexplained
58	A	on	B	away	C	forward	D	off

LIVEWORKSHEETS