

Unit 10 Lesson 1 Quiz

1. Joanie brought home several different seashells from the beach. Which one is a fossil?
 - A. a clam that died on the way home
 - B. a rock with an imprint of a seashell
 - C. a clump of seashells stuck together
 - D. two seashell halves that fit together
2. Steve was studying fossil fuels. He learned that a common type of fossil fuel forms from dead plants. What type of fuel is it?
 - A. oil
 - B. coal
 - C. gasoline
 - D. natural gas
3. Oil and natural gas are two types of fossil fuel used to heat homes. What did oil and natural gas form from?
 - A. sediment
 - B. dead plants
 - C. dead ocean fish
 - D. tiny marine animals
4. What is a scientist who studies fossils called?
 - A. a biologist
 - B. a botanist
 - C. a paleontologist
 - D. a physicist
5. Fish live in many different environments such as lakes, ponds, and oceans. Which is one feature in fish that has changed greatly over time?
 - A. scales
 - B. bones
 - C. eyes
 - D. jaws