

Lesson 4 Jobs and personal qualities

1 Talk about it

Look at the picture.

What are the people doing?
What are their jobs?

2 Read the interview with Sultan and put the sentences in the correct place. Write a, b, c or d.

- a I have to interview lots of different people to find out information.
- b I'm a news reporter for a local TV channel.
- c It's an interesting job because news stories are always changing.
- d I make news reports about important things happening in my town.

Interviewer: Hi, Sultan. Can you tell me – what's your job?

Sultan: _____⁽¹⁾

Interviewer: What do you do in your job?

Sultan: _____⁽²⁾ I go to the scene of the news. Then I stand in front of a film camera and report to TV viewers at home. It's a great job – I love it!

Interviewer: Why do you like it?

Sultan: _____⁽³⁾ and there is always something new to report. I enjoy telling viewers about the good things people do in their communities.

Interviewer: What qualities do you need to do your job?

Sultan: First of all, you should be confident in front of the camera and behind it too. _____⁽⁴⁾
Oh, and you need stay calm if there is a problem on or off air. You can't get nervous if the camera is filming you!

3 Read and write

Write a short description of Sultan's job from the dialogue. Use these headings:

Job title What he does Why he likes it What qualities are needed to do the job? Why?

| | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|--|
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |