

Unit 5 Vocabulary Match

Instructions: Draw a line from the vocabulary word to its correct definition.

Natural Selection

A deep sleep – animals slow down body processes to save energy

Selective Breeding

An inherited characteristic

Variation

structural, behavioral, or physiological trait that make an organism more likely to survive

Adaptation

Differences that occur in individuals within a species

Camouflage

Seasonal movement from one area to another

Mimicry

Humans breed specific plants or animals for desired traits

Migration

A scientific tool used to identify organisms based on their traits

Hibernation

Short stem with fleshy leaves that function as food storage organs

Plant Bulb

The organization of living things into groups based on their traits

Trait

Populations adapt to their environment over time

Dichotomous Key

An adaptation that allows an organism to blend into its surroundings

Classification

An adaptation that copies the behavior or physical characteristics of another organism