A horrible dream

I had a terrible dream yesterday. I was in the forest. Suddenly / At first I wasn't scared. The forest was pleasant and nice. I walked around with my camera and took photos of strange plants and animals that were all around the place. But then / finally I saw something in the distance. It was an ugly bird, it looked like a very strange parrot. I was observing it for some time. After ten minutes / At first it started moving in my direction. I was very scared. I started screaming and I tried to run away but my legs were very heavy. In the end / Suddenly my best friend appeared. He looked at me and started to laugh, next, he gave me his hand and we run together. I looked behind and saw that the bird was very big, it tried to eat us. We jumped to the river. After that / Suddenly we swam for a long time. Finally / Two weeks later we jumped out of the water. The bird wasn't there. We were safe but unfortunately my camera wasn't with me.
