

Superlatives and comparatives – Complete the text with comparative or superlative forms

The USA's (awesome) places for teenagers

The United States is one of (good) country in the world for amusement parks and historical landmarks which makes it one of (fantastic) destination for family vacation.

Here are some of (interesting) spots that teenagers will want to visit when visiting the States.

Aspen, Colorado

Aspen is (famous) winter destination. It is (great) spot for winter sports. Aspen is (lovely) place to cool off during the summer months as temperatures are (cool) in other parts of the US. You'll find (amazing) trails to hike or cycle or other (exciting) activities such as water rafting and horse riding. All of this makes Aspen (good) choice for holidays with teenagers who love being outdoors but perhaps (interesting) for kids who are into cultural activities.

Honolulu, Hawaii

Hawai is the only US state located in the Pacific Ocean. It is (popular) place for surfing. If you are (interested) in water sport but feel (comfortable) spending the day at one of (beautiful) beaches in the U.S, a trip to Honolulu and the island of Oahu is (clever) choice.

Las Vegas, Nevada

Las Vegas is (known) city for casinos but this place is also full of great entertainment for teenagers! (unforgettable) experience is to go on a day trip to (stunning) Grand Canyon or (impressive) Hoover Dam, both amazing things to see.

New York City, New York

Teenagers love going on a trip to the Big Apple where they can visit (famous) sights, take a trip to Times Square, go to some the world (prestigious) stores, or head to a Broadway play. New York City is certainly (boring) destination for teenagers!

Washington, D.C.

Washington, D.C. is the city with some of America's (prestigious) landmarks such as the White House, the Lincoln Memorial and Capitol Hill. It is the place to go to for (educational) visits.