1. Challenge! In small groups check the topics you know about traffic in your city. Check the ones you know about from the following list.

- Traffic light colors
- Traffic light meanings
- Driving rules
- Driver responsibilities
- Passengers' rights
- Pedestrian obligations and responsibilities

2. Read the following paragraph, pay attention to the words highlighted in blue.

There are students from high schools who in the past used to receive a subject called "Traffic Education," but this doesn't exist anymore. These students used to apply their learning on the streets. Nowadays, traffic education doesn't exist. People don't know much about traffic signs, signals, and their responsibilities as citizens. The Police recommend instructing ourselves about this, and there is information about it on their webpage. If you want to know more information on this topic, access the police website and teach yourself about the subject.

3. Complete the phrases using the correct reflexive pronoun.

- Traffic officers solve the city's traffic jam problems.....
- We can save our lives..... by respecting the traffic signs and symbols.
- You can teach..... anything new by reading, researching and asking experts.

4. Write the letter a, b, or c in the picture it describes.
