Reviewing Adjectives

1. An ( ) person believes they are very good at certain things and likes other people to know it too. It is a bit like self-confident but is a negative characteristic.

2. A ( ) person is always losing things, or doesn't know where things are. They break things easily and generally don't take care of things.

3. An ( ) person is critical of attitudes and behaviour which are different from their own.

4. A ( ) person doesn't feel comfortable meeting new people.

5. A ( ) person always thinks of original ways of doing things. Artists and writers need to be creative to think of original ideas for paintings and novels.

6. A ( ) person only ever thinks of himself or herself.

7. A ( ) person will always stick by someone, no matter how unpopular that person becomes.

8. A ( ) person doesn't like to reveal his or her thoughts and attitudes, or what (s)he is thinking.

9. A ( ) person, once they get an idea into their heads, will pursue it until they achieve it. Nothing will distract them.

10. A ( ) person never believes that anyone does something good for another person without really wanting to get something out of it for themselves. A lot of people feel cynical towards politicians, because they think they are only in politics for their own benefit rather than for the benefit of the people they represent.

11. A ( ) person is very strong in his or her desire to get something finished or to achieve something.

12. A ( ) person, once they have made a decision, never thinks about changing his or her mind.
