

("act", "seem", "look", "feel") like

Read the following sentences and answer true or false.

*Images of Carnaval make Brazil look like the party capital of the world.
Other Chileans think people from Santiago act like they are the managers of the country.
To outsiders, it may seem like all the countries in South America are the same.
Because of the prevalence of European architecture, Buenos Aires doesn't feel like a South American city.*

1. Do these sentences describe facts? _____
2. Do these sentences describe perceptions? _____
3. Is a perception a thought or opinion? _____

Read the sentence again, analyze and use two of the phrases in the box to complete the statement.

Noun phrase / dependent clause / participle clause / independent clause /

4. "like" can be followed by _____, _____.