

Number: A

Q1. Zoe created a number riddle.

- I am a 3-digit number.
- The digit in my ones place is half of 12.
- The digit in my tens place has a place value of 20.
- The digit in my hundreds place is double the digit in my ones place.

Arman says that Zoe number riddle is wrong.

What do you think? Give your reason.

Q2. Arman wants to create a number riddle for number 348.

Help him to complete his riddle.

I am _____ digit number.

I am _____ than 200 but _____ than 400.

The digit in my _____ place is double of the digit in my tens place.

The digit in my hundreds place has a place value of _____.

The digit in my tens place is double of _____.

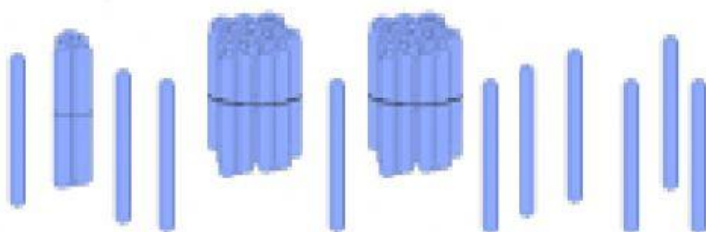

Who am I? _____

Q3. Fill in the blanks:

a. 4 tens + 1 hundred + 8 ones = _____

b. _____ + _____ + 700 = 788

c.

is number _____