

Choose the correct answer.

1. To create a new document in GIMP, click on the _____ menu and click 'New'.

2. The shortcut for creating a new document is _____.

3. A large image has a _____ file size and this can make your computer run _____.

4. You need to choose a _____ for the new document and click on 'OK'.

5. GIMP can be used to open _____ different types of image files.

6. One of the common file types is _____.

7. GIMP can also open and edit images created in other _____ applications.

8. Another way to open an existing document is by

_____ it onto the GIMP shortcut icon on your desktop.

9. If you want to keep the file you are working on,

you click on _____ in the File menu.

10. To save a file under a different name, you click on _____.

11. Another way to share your images with friends is to _____ them.