

Where We Are In Place And Time - Weeks 4 & 5

Language Arts – Assessment

1. Unscramble the words for the definitions:

- itcy-testa : A city that with its surrounding territory forms an independent state.
- pecotomtirs : People or teams that take part in contests or competitions.
- sesirventroco : Disagreements over an issue.
- sticar : Believing that one race of human beings is superior to another or others.
- crute : A pause in fighting, temporary peace.

2. Drag and drop the words to complete the sentences:

terrorists

Nazis

athletes

procession

sauna

- A) The _____ trained hard every day to be at their best for the Summer Olympics.
- B) Albert Einstein escaped the _____ in Germany and moved to the US.
- C) The _____ was observed by the King and the Generals.
- D) Guests can relax in the jacuzzi, steam room or _____.
- E) _____ planted a bomb near the school.

3. Match the words with the pictures:

Bas-relief

Befuddled

Cavernous

Masterpiece

Mystical

4. Match the words with the definitions:

Accustomed	Studied or examined something in detail, in order to discover more about it.
Analysed	Powerful feelings that are natural and not reasoned.
Instincts	A form of carbon that is radioactive.
Methods	Familiar thorough routine or practice.
Radiocarbon	A way of doing something.

5. Choose the right tense:

- A) I buy / bought a battery, but it didn't do any good.
- B) That is the way to write / wrote a story.
- C) We can't fly / flew, that's why we make airplanes.
- D) Daddy go / went home to sleep.
- E) Edward take / took the paper and threw it in the trash can.
- F) Why do you think / thought so?

6. Find conjunctions in the following sentences:

- A) Several years before, a large pine tree had been struck by lightning and tumbled over, exposing a gaping entrance.
- B) These paintings were clearly very old, but how old?
- C) They had a feeling that the opening was something other than a burrow or a tunnel.
- D) They made plans to return with a light and some shovels.
- E) Scientists tried to date them using the radiocarbon method, but they found that these pictures could not be dated in this way.

7. Check the introductory commas and tick the sentences that are correct:

- A) Well, that's just what happened to four teenage boys in Lascaux, France, on a warm September day in 1940.
- B) Someone, found a piece of sandstone that was hollowed out on one side.

- C) Luckily, the artists left all kinds of clues behind on the ground below their masterpieces.
- D) Can, you guess what tools they used to carve the stone walls inside the cave?
- E) So, did the Stone Age people come first and the people who did the paintings follow much later, after fire had been discovered and used more?