SITI

Then, what should I do?

Wow, you make it sound so easy. Thank you so much for your help. I'm going to start jotting down all my ideas immediately.

My teacher wants me to write a composition on 'How to be a wise shopper' but I'm not sure how to do it.

That doesn't seem difficult to do.

MILA

I hope your composition turns out well.
Goodbye.

Of course, Siti. How can I help?

Next, organise your ideas. Group the ideas that belong together. Decide which ideas belong in the introduction, body and conclusion of the composition.

Once you have all your ideas, go through them carefully. Cross out the ideas that you think are not suitable or don't make sense.

Mila	:
Siti	:
Mila	:	It's not that difficult. First, write down all the ideas that come to your mind when you think of the topic. It doesn't matter what the ideas are. Just write them all down.
Siti	:
Mila	:
Siti	:	Okay. What's the next step?
Mila	:
Siti	:
Mila	:	No, it isn't. Once the ideas are arranged in paragraphs, all you have to do is elaborate them and you will have your composition.
Siti	:
Mila	:
Siti	:	Bye.
