

THREE SCIENTISTS

NEW VOCABULARY:

a windmill /'windmɪl/ - вітряк;

a sail /seɪl/ - крило вітряка;

a wheel /wi:l/ - колесо

LISTEN TO THE TEXT ABOUT THREE SCIENTISTS. CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER "True" or "False":

- Galileo Galilei made his first scientific discovery at the age of 19.
A) True B) False
- Galileo became Professor of Mathematics at the university when he was 60.
A) True B) False
- Galileo Galilei was a great Spanish scientist.
A) True B) False
- As a boy Isaac Newton built a model of a telescope.
A) True B) False
- The sails of Newton's windmill could turn only when there was a wind.
A) True B) False
- In Newton's windmill there was a wheel with a mouse. The mouse moved the sails as it ran.
A) True B) False
- When Albert Einstein was an old man, he thought about what light was.
A) True B) False
- Albert Einstein was very hard-working and attentive at the lessons in school.
A) True B) False
- Einstein's teachers were angry with him.
A) True B) False
- Einstein is a founder of "The Theory of Relativity".
A) True B) False