UNIT 2 Money

PBD Reading 4

Textbook Reference: p. 67

Read the conversation below.

Mom: David, here's your allowance for the week.
David: Oh, thanks! By the way, you owe me RM30.
Mom: Do I?
David: I mowed the lawn and cleared the attic last week. You promised me RM30 if I got all of that done.
Mom: Ahh, those. Okay, here you go. That's RM30. I don't owe you any more do, I?
David: No. I was saving up for a new skateboard. Now that I have enough, I'm going to get it tomorrow.
Mom: Don't those things cost an arm and a leg?
David: They do, normally. But, there's a promotion for the one that I like. It's 50% off the normal price. It's a really good deal.
Mom: It's your money. As long as you spend it wisely. Don't be penny wise pound foolish. Looks like you did your homework this time. Do remember to also _____.
David: Yes, mom. I always have some money for emergencies.
