The Shape Game

Look at this poem,
don't just read – _____¹!
And guess some of the shapes that you've met in this book.

This one is _____², like
a building in Rome.
It's a tough one to crack.
That's right – it's a _____³.

Do you remember the _____⁶?
The cream of the crop!
Just put in some
_____⁷
and put a c h e r r y
on the t o p !

Next time you're thirsty
and you want a _____⁴, you'll need one of these,
I think. When it's hot, what I find nice is a frozen _____⁵
that's made of ice.

The
last of my shapes
is just right for the _____⁸.
I hope you've enjoyed this game as much as me! A windsurfer needs this, or the sailor of a _____⁹. Do you think that you can guess it now?
Think of the Burj Al Arab and you can't fail. I think you've got it – yes, it's a _____¹⁰!

2 Now write a poem of your own. Try a concrete (shape) poem!
