

To go away		-To continue; to happen.
To go ahead		-To cause to be understood, transmit.
To go by		-To get smaller or decrease. -To become known, circulate.
To go in		-To enter.
To go down		-To pass (for time); to pass a place. -To do something as planned.
To go on		-To leave a place or a person's company.
To get across		-To escape the (negative) consequences of something.
To get around		-To recover from an illness, overcome a problem.
To get away with		-To manage to survive in spite of difficulties.
To get by		-To leave a bus, train, plane, etc. -To go inside a car, a bus, etc.
To get in		-To have a friendly relationship.
To get into		-To become interested in; to fit in.
To get on		-To continue doing an activity, make progress.
To get on with
To get off
To get over		