

ACROSS

2. When you don't have enough of something.
6. The result of an action.
8. When water in the air cools down and forms droplets.
10. When liquid changes into a gas or steam.
12. Being able to use something.
13. To use something up.

DOWN

1. Found in lakes and rivers, it's water than contains no salt.
3. A region of land where precipitation drains into a river or lake.
4. Things that fall from the clouds like rain, snow, sleet or hail.
5. Not use a resource in a wasteful way.
7. Water that starts off as rain or snow that goes into the ocean.
9. The process in which Earth's water is constantly being recycled.
11. A mixture of gases that surround the planet.