

Ex.1. Choose the correct preposition

This evening is an exciting night (1) at/for British film. So many famous actors are arriving in front of the building (2) at/in the moment. I can see the glamorous star (3) to/of the film (4) with/for her new boyfriend who is walking (5) ahead of/to her. She's wearing a stunning dress (6) on/in pale yellow. And now a long car stops and cameras are flashing everywhere (7) for/as Prince Charles gets out (8) in/of the back and waves (9) by/to the crowds. Someone is trying to speak to him but he walks past and quickly makes his way (10) in/into the cinema.'

Ex.2. Complete the table

noun	adjective
beauty colourful excitement expense famous fashion
	happy possibility romance successful

Suggestions have a question mark (?) when they start with a question word or have a question word order.

Examples: What do you want?
Do you want an apple?

Suggestions have a full stop (.) when they don't start with a question word and have a statement word order:

Example: Let's go out.

Ex.3. Choose the correct
punctuation sign

- 1 Let's go to a football match this evening
- 2 Can we go to the Odeon in the holidays
- 3 What about the opera
- 4 I'd like to go this week
- 5 There's a funny film on this evening. What do you think
- 6 OK. Let's do that

- 1 However/During the 1990s, The Spice Girls was one of the most successful groups in the world.
- 2 Luciano Pavarotti is an opera singer. José Carreras is too/also a famous opera singer.
- 3 We watched the film on TV and then/now we went to bed.
- 4 Paul McCartney is from Liverpool. The other Beatles came from Liverpool, however/too.
- 5 The life of a celebrity is difficult for example,/because they never have a private life.
- 6 Steven Spielberg is successful however/because he makes a lot of good films.
- 7 I laughed a lot during/when I watched the video.
- 8 Charlie Chaplin was popular also/because he was very funny.

Ex.4. Choose the correct linking word