Grammar

C. Read the sentences and circle the correct answer.

1. To lend / Lending money to Ron was foolish of you.
2. I'd really love to come / coming to your wedding.
3. I think we should prevent / preventing him from cheat / cheating in the test.
4. I don't remember to meet / meeting you before.
5. We were shocked hearing / to hear that Nancy had had an accident.
6. Marcia left school to become / becoming an actress.
7. I want to apologise for speak / speaking to you in such a rude way.

D. Complete the dialogues with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use the full infinitive, bare infinitive, or -ing fo

1. A: Hey, do you fancy _____ (watch) a DVD tonight?
   B: That's a good idea.
2. A: Did he really threaten _____ (reveal) your secret?
   B: Yeah! But I warned him not to.
3. A: It was so nice of you _____ (send) me flowers.
   B: I never forget how much you like roses.
4. A: Is it true that Jenny married a millionaire?
   B: I don't know if he is a millionaire, but he is believed _____ (be) very rich.
5. A: Who did the police accuse of _____ (steal) the money?
   B: Henry, but he denied _____ (have) anything to do with it.
6. A: I was really surprised _____ (see) Peter at the dinner party last night.
   B: Yes, he changed his mind and decided _____ (come) after all.
7. A: When did Paul stop _____ (smoke)?
   B: Last month. Isn't it great?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

E. Complete the text by putting the verbs in brackets in the correct form. Use the full infinitive, bare infinitive, or -ing form.

May I (1) _____ (have) your attention please? Final exams begin next Monday, so listen carefully. You should avoid (2) _____ (stay) up late at night (3) _____ (study). It would (4) _____ (be) better (5) _____ (organise) your time effectively during the day. However, if you feel like (6) _____ (go) out with your friends (7) _____ (have) fun, then do, but remember (8) _____ (return) home early and (9) _____ (get) enough sleep. When the exam period finishes, you'll (10) _____ (have) plenty of time (11) _____ (enjoy) yourselves as much as you like.

Vocabulary

A. Cross out the odd word.

1. spiky	ponytail	highlights	chain
2. earrings	dreadlocks	bracelets	anklets
3. high heels	sandals	jumpers	Wellington boots
4. sweatshirt	anorak	coat	slipper

B. Complete the text with the words in the box.

wedding dress	necklace	stylist	facial
jewellery	hairstyle	dietician	make up

An event which many new graduates from university look forward to is their graduation ball. I remember I had put on a few pounds some months before the ball so I did lots of exercise and saw a (1) _____ about how to lose weight. Luckily, I lost the extra weight just in time for the ball. It took me ages to find a dress because nothing looked good on me. There was one that I particularly liked but my sister said it looked too much like a (2) _____. Eventually, I went to see a (3) _____ who helped me pick out the perfect dress and a lovely gold (4) _____, and some other matching (5) _____. On the day of the ball, I went to a spa where I had a (6) _____ and a massage which was very relaxing. I got a new (7) _____ and I also had my (8) _____ done. In the end, I had a great time at the ball; it was wonderful to see all my classmates one last time before we went our separate ways.

LIVEWORKSHEETS