

Quests

1. Fit the correct word into the correct sentence.

Think about the categorization of the word according to their grammatical form: adjective, noun, verb, article, and so on. As you read the text, think about what type of word could fit into the space provided.

Choose the words from the list below. The first one has been done for you.

travels	someone	never	lover
the	power	monster
journey	stop	on	magical
wrong	some	hero	between

The quest is therefore about a central figure, or hero, trying to achieve an important goal. The object of the quest is often a person or an object that has the _____ to change a bad situation. The goal frequently requires a long _____.

For example, in a love story a _____ seeks the love of a beloved. In fantasy literature the object frequently has _____ powers: a ring, a crown, a book, or a stone. The detective story can also be a kind of quest in which _____ seeks to uncover the truth.

There are often other characters _____ the quest. A teacher or mentor figure often guides _____ seeker. A good friend, or a band of travelers, often _____ with the seeker. Along this journey the hero will meet a trickster who sends him in the _____ direction. The travelers also find other enemies on the way to _____ them from reaching their goal.

Character Archetypes

2. Watch the movie trailers. Complete the table below identifying the different characters that fulfill the corresponding archetype.

Quest	Seeker	Object of the quest	Journey from/ to	Friend/ companion	Trickster/ enemy
Finding Nemo
The Lord of the Rings
The Wizard of Oz					