My baby boy is 8 months old.

He sleeps in his crib.

We put him there because his doctor says that a crib usually helps.

The problem is that he knows we are next to him, or so the doctor thinks.

I think that he is wrong.

Things are worse now.

He wakes up 8 times every night.

When we give him a bottle he goes back to sleep.

He eats lots of solids before bed.

Sometimes we give him water.

But he still wakes up.
