Lesson 8 You can be anything (1)

POEM

1 Talk about it

When you are older, what kind of job would you like to have? For example, a job where you travel, where you use your hands, or a job where you help people?

2 Read and listen

Read and listen to part of a poem. Match the pictures to jobs in the poem.

You can be anything

by Teri Hopkins

... See you can be 1 but you must 2
So never give up, REACH for the sky.

You could be a fire fighter, and save someone's life,

Putting great big fires out, morning till night.

You could be a police officer patrolling the roads,

Keeping the world safe from the bad boys and girls,

You could be a scientist making potions and pills,

Finding new medicines that help mend the ill.

See it really doesn't matter whatever you 3

As long as you're happy you never will 4

But don't look at me to decide what you do,

The only one making that choice will be ...

YOU!

3 Word study Suffix -er

The -er ending in the job-words in the table is called a suffix.

Some job-words come from the verb: for example, teacher comes from teach. Copy the table into your notebook and then write the verbs.

Job	Verb
teacher	teach presenter writer builder
reporter
