Dante's Peak: Chapters 5-6

Complete the text with the words below.

arranged	detected	erupt	evident	however	inform	insisted	invest obsessed	promised	ready	refused	replied	townspeople	wondered

Harry spoke to Paul Dreyfus on the phone to tell him about the two dead swimmers. He asked him to take everyone and the robot.

Rachel _____ a meeting between Harry and the most important people in the town. Harry and Rachel told them about the swimmers and the acid in the lake. Sheriff Turner said the volcano was dead, to which Harry _____ that it was sleeping and it was starting to be dangerous. He said he wanted people to be _____ to move out. Les Worrell said Elliot Blair would not _____ in the town if people were leaving. Just then Paul Dreyfus walked into the room. He took Harry outside and _____ that they couldn't tell for sure that the volcano would _____. He said it was just an earthquake. They went back into the room and Paul told the _____ he didn't think the volcano would erupt. He asked them not to tell the other people in the town. He _____ to stay in Dante's Peak with the other scientists for a couple of weeks and to take their equipment up into the mountain.

Dreyfus wanted Harry to leave Dante's Peak, but Harry _____. He implied that Harry was _____ with volcanoes. He told him to fly in a helicopter round the peak with his equipment, and then _____ him.

Harry had breakfast at Rachel's café. Rachel invited him over to dinner. It was _____ that they liked each other.

When Harry and Terry flew round the mountain, the equipment only _____ a little gas. Under them, _____, the ground gave a strong push and rocks fell down the mountain.

After dinner at Rachel's house, Harry and Rachel sat outside and talked. Rachel spoke about Brian, her ex-husband. She said he never wrote, and that the children didn't remember him. She _____ whether he wrote to Ruth. Harry told her about Marianne.

LIVEWORKSHEETS