

Comparative and Superlative Adjectives

The comparative is used when you are comparing two things, and is made by adding an -er or the word more before an adjective. The superlative is used when you are referring to the highest quality or degree of something, and is made by adding -est or the word most before an adjective.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative	Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
Light (1)	lighter	the lightest	important	More important	Most important
afraid			interesting
amazed			large
bad			late
bitter			low
bored			narrow
boring			nervous
brave			nice
busy			offended
carefully			old
cheap			orange
greyish			outraged
close			political
complete			simple
dangerous			sleepy
dark			small		