El nuevo tiempo verbal se llama Presente Perfecto. Se utiliza para hablar de acciones o eventos recientes y para dar noticias. Se forma de la siguiente manera: Has o Have + verbo en tercera columna.
Recuerden: Have ( I, You, we, They) y Has (he, She, It)

Observación: Si el verbo No está en la lista agrega ED porque es regular. Presten atención que ahora vamos a usar la 3º columna de la lista. Al final de este archivo hay una copia de la misma.

Ex.4: Complete the phone conversation between Alice and her mum. Use the Present Perfect form of the verbs in brackets. (Completar con los verbos en presente perfecto)

Mum: Hi Alice. ....you.....(leave) the café?

Alice: No, I'm still here.

Mum: I..... (finish) in the shop now.

Alice: .....you.....(buy) anything?

Mum: I.....(find) a few little things. I.....(not spend) much money. Are you bored?

Alice: No, I am fine. I.....(send) a few emails.

Mum: Let's have lunch. I.....(not eat) since 6 o'clock this morning.

Alice: I.....(have) lunch. Sorry, I couldn't wait!

Ex.5: Write the past participle of these verbs. Tick the ones which are regular.
