

past	present
saw were had slipped fell came

Maria is a baker. She works in a bakery. On her first day of work she saw that the oven gloves were not very good. But she had to take the bread out of the oven

What should she do?

- Use a towel to take the bread out of the oven
- Tell her boss the gloves are not safe
- Ask a co-worker to take the break out.

One day Maria came to work and didn't see that there is water on the floor. She slipped and fell. She hurt her back. What should she do?

- Get up and start work
- Clean up the water
- Tell her boss she is hurt, go home and fill an incident report

past	present
	works
	has make is eat laugh

Shazia works in a restaurant. She has been working there for two months. She and her co-workers have fun at work. They laugh and have a good time. Sometimes they make jokes. One day a co-worker tells Shazia she "eats like a horse". The next day the co-worker asks her "are you pregnant?". Shazia is embarrassed. The co-worker is making fun of her. Shazia is nervous. What should Shazia do?

- Tell the co-worker she is bullying her and to stop
- Tell the co-worker she needs to lose weight
- Tell her boss she feels uncomfortable