

Can or can't

Can /kən/ stressed /kæn/

Can't /kɑ:nt $ kænt/

Listen to the sentences. Complete with can or can't.

- He _____ write on a computer, but he _____ walk.
She _____ ride a bike, but she _____ swim.
They _____ learn to count, but they _____ learn to talk.
I _____ use a computer, but I _____ draw pictures with it.

Listen to the short conversations. Fill in the blanks.

- A: _____ you swim?
B: No, I _____ .

A: _____ you sing?
B: Yes, _____ not very well.

Listen and choose the correct answer.

- You _____ swim, _____ you?
Even a small personal computer _____ store vast amounts of information.
Gabriella _____ speak French fluently.
I'm afraid Mr Harding _____ see you now – he's busy.
The police are doing all they _____ to find her.
_____ I have a drink, please?
_____ you help me lift this box?
You _____ park here – it's a no parking zone.
_____ we go home now?' 'No we _____.'
Sorry, I _____ help you.
You can't miss it, it's a huge building
_____ you smell something burning?