

Dante's Peak: Chapters 7-8

Glossary

- Accurate: correct or exact
- Astounded: very surprised or shocked
- Conclude: end
- Delighted: very pleased
- Disagree: have a different opinion from someone else
- Eventually: in the end, after some time
- Fear: be worried that something bad might happen
- Fix: repair
- Influence: change the way that someone thinks
- Luckily: happening because of good luck
- Meanwhile: in the time between two things happening, or while something else is happening
- Place: put something somewhere carefully
- Scatter: put a lot of objects over an area
- Spot: see or notice something or someone
- Suddenly: quickly and when not expected
- Suggest: say an idea or plan for someone to consider
- Summit: the top of a mountain
- Thankfulness: gratitude
- Try out: use to see if it is effective
- Whether: used to talk about a choice between two or more possibilities

Read the glossary and choose the correct option.

Harry and Terry flew to the mountain and _____ equipment on the ground around the _____. Their equipment was _____ enough to detect a bird jump on the ground. Terry built robots that could go inside volcanoes, _____ gases and smoke, and determine how hot and dangerous it was. They _____ Terry's robot in the car park. The robot worked but _____ it stopped. Terry kicked it to make it start again.

Rachel was _____ by the number of earthquakes there were every day, but Harry calmed her down explaining that these small earthquakes normally happened and were not dangerous.

When it was _____ inside the volcano, the robot sent images back to their equipment and to the equipment at the hotel. The robot suddenly stopped and Terry climbed down into the volcano to _____ it. Just then, there was a strong earthquake and a rock fell on Terry and the robot.

Harry _____ the worst. _____, he was wrong – Terry only had a broken leg. _____, the helicopter rescued them.

Paul and Harry _____ about the volcano's danger. Paul insisted the Harry was _____ by his experience with Marianne. He _____ that they would stay for just two more days. Before leaving, Harry _____ Rachel might go to Portland so that they could meet. Paul went over to their table to express his _____ to Rachel. Les Worrell and Elliot Blair joined them. They were _____ to see them leave. Harry was forced to admit that he couldn't tell _____ the volcano would erupt or not. _____, at the lake near Ruth's house, acid flowed into it and hundreds of fish died.