I think about that day
 I left him at a Greyhound station
 West of Santa Fé
 We were seventeen, but he was sweet and it was _____ Still I did what I had to _____
 'Cause I just knew
 Summer Sunday _____
 We'd sink into our seats
 Right as they dimmed out all the _____
 A Technicolor world made out of music and _____
 It called me to be on that _____
 And live inside each scene
Without a nickel to my name
 Hopped a bus, here I came
 Could be brave or just insane
 We'll have to see
 'Cause maybe in that sleepy _____
 He'll sit one day, the lights are _____

He'll see my face and think of how
 He used to know me
 Climb these hills
I'm reaching for the heights
 And chasing all the lights that shine
 And when they let you down
You'll get up off the ground
 'Cause morning rolls around
 And it's another day of sun

I hear 'em every day
 The rhythms in the canyons
 That'll never fade away
 The ballads in the barrooms
 Left by those who came before
 They say "you gotta want it _____"
 So I bang on every _____
 And even when the answer's _____
 Or when my money's running low
 The dusty mic and neon
 Are all I need
 And someday as I sing my _____
 A small-town kid'll come _____

That'll be the thing to push him on and go, go
 Climb these hills, I'm reaching for the heights
 And chasing all the lights that shine
 And when they let you down
 You'll get up off the ground
 'Cause morning rolls around
 And it's another day of sun
