

NAME:

GROUP:

1.- Write a definition of the next words:

BOURGEOISIE:

GUILD:

2.- Say if the next sentences are TRUE (T) or FALSE (F):

Outside the artisan shops there were signs that said the name of the good they produced.

The guilds obliged their members to meet certain standards.

The dominance of Christianity in medieval Europe meant Jews were often persecuted.

Medieval cities had a regular plan and neighbourhoods were not separated.

Gothic style, as well as the Romanesque, are medieval art styles.

Gothic style was less realistic than the Romanesque style.

Medieval cities didn't have hygiene problems.

Gothic buildings were brighter and taller than the Romanesque ones.

The synagogue is the Jewish temple where the rabbi interprets the Coran.

Jews had to wear clothes to be distinguished Christian.

3.- Look at this image of a medieval city and complete the following statements about its main characteristics:

- The of medieval cities were extended as the city grew.

The plan was and there was usually a large square in the centre of the city.

- The houses were grouped by that sorted the population according to their origin, (morenía, judería), or trade.

- The of the city were narrow and had major problems of hygiene.

That is why the presence and spread of, such as typhus or cholera, were frequent.

4.- These medieval cities grew significantly from the 12th century. Indicate the correct answer about the causes for this growth: write T in the correct answers.

- A The causes were: a period of religious and political peace in which the birth rate increased greatly and the transfer of lands of the Church that allowed the cities to expand.
- B The causes were: the end of invasions, the transfer of land of the Church to expand the cities and the conquests of new territories where new cities were built.
- C The causes were: the end of invasions, agricultural growth, population growth and the revival of trade.
- D The causes were: agricultural growth, the increase in the amount of artisans of different jobs by royal order and the decrease of violent deaths.

5.- Answer the questions about the BLACK DEATH:

Where was the Black death originated?

When and how did the Black Death arrive to Europe?

What's the origin of its name?

How many people were affected in Europe?

how was it transmitted to humans?

What did people think about the plague?

6.- Write which of these images corresponds to a Gothic cathedral and which to a Romanesque church:

A. Gothic cathedral.

B. Romanesque church

7.- Complete the gaps:

From thecentury, the Gothic artistic style spread trough all

Economic and population growth in cities led to the need for new

Masons and builders built palaces for nobles,for local governments andfor merchants. Although the most important building which was the centre and symbol of the cities was the Thestyle was characterised by its great, externaland largeglass windows.

8.- Complete the picture with the parts of a GOTHIC CATHEDRAL:

9.- Complete about the next masterpieces:

Type of masterpiece:

Style and chronology:

Topic represented:

Description (characteristics of the style):

Type of masterpiece:

Style and chronology:

Topic represented:

Description (characteristics of the style):

10.- Write Romanesque or Gothic below the next masterpieces:

