Focus words: the thing/fact/point/problem is (that)

Draw a line to connect the sentence halves.

I would like to go out,	you will do well in school.
The fact is if we don't	think global warming is real, like if it were Santa Claus.
The point is that if you study	but the thing is my parents like me to be home by 10 o'clock.
The problem is that many people don't	act now on global warming, it will be too late.