

The Powers of State Government

Sort the specific powers below into those that ARE granted to the federal government and those that are NOT.

State Powers
(Reserved)

State Powers
(Reserved)

Provide for the military

Carry out elections

Oversee public education

Manage post office

Establish local government

Protect public health and welfare

Declare war

Regulate money

