Listen to the audio as many times as you need to, and then fill in the blanks.

Radio _____ in France have been _____ against a possible new government rule. DJs were already _____ with a 30-year-old system that _____ them to make sure that 40 percent of the songs they _____ are in French. Now the government wants them to _____ sure the songs in French are not the same _____ hits. Radio stations could get a _____ if they do not _____ these rules. Radio company _____ say the new rule will stop French people from _____ to the radio. Many music _____ already choose music _____ services to listen to American or _____ songs. Moreover, many French _____, such as Daft Punk and Phoenix, now sing in English so they can be popular _____.

France's government says the new law is to _____ its culture from American and British _____. It especially wants to _____ the English language from getting _____ into French _____. A spokesman for the French music _____ said the new law is_____. He said that if the radio stations were _____ to play whatever songs they wanted, "_____ the French language and the music would _____ out". He _____ that: "[Radio stations] can't just be allowed to do what they want when it comes to _____." A union for French _____ said the law is _____ to protect French musicians. He said: "It remains _____ for French artists to have the _____ of making a _____ out of music."

LIVEWORKSHEETS