

1. Fill in the gaps. Use the appropriate forms of the word in brackets. Mind the type of condition!!!
(Mixed conditionals possible)

1. It's chilly; I wish I _____ (bring) a sweater.
2. Samantha wishes she _____ (have) a job.
3. If I were you, I _____ (spend) my summer holiday volunteering.
4. When you give money to shelters, you _____ (help) many homeless people.
5. If people _____ (drink) contaminated water, they get sick.
6. If I had the time and money, I _____ (go) backpacking around the world.
7. If he _____ (study) hard, he will pass his exam.
8. If you _____ (listen) in class, you would have understood how to do the assignment.

2. Fill in the gaps. Use the appropriate forms of the word in brackets. Mind the type of condition!!!
(Mixed conditionals possible)

1. If Bill _____ (know) about the fun run, he _____ (join) the race. But he was playing Dota all the day.
2. If Jane _____ (not arrive) at 5 in the morning, she _____ (not have) enough time to be sitting in the café with the friends.
3. I have a headache and I think it's getting worse day by day. I think I _____ (not have) it if I _____ (consult) a doctor when I first felt it but I didn't.
4. I wish there _____ (be) more cycle lanes in the town in future because I enjoy _____ (ride) my bicycle.
5. The animals that _____ (live) in the rainforest _____ (suffer) if we _____ (not stop) cutting down trees.
6. If Carol _____ (raise) much more money last year, she _____ (not work) so hard now.
7. It's a pity, Sophie isn't here now. If Vera _____ (tell) her about the party, she _____ (certainly / be) with us.

Spring Evening in Kolomna