

ACTIVITY 1

1. Match each word with its corresponding image

Reign

Mighty

Gulls

Seaside

Sunbeams

Caress

Activity 2

2. Read the poem and identify the main idea

Beside the Sea

In happiness I reign supreme,
Under the spell of the sea;
I hear the ocean's mighty roar
Singing her songs to me.

Waves caress the sandy shore
On a seaside holiday,
Salt sprayed breezes kiss my cheek,
Sea gulls romp and play.

I lingered lost in reverie
By my mystical, magical sea,
A perfect day that will remain
Locked in my memory.

Golden sunbeams warm my soul,
Shimmering everywhere;
Then suddenly I felt the touch
Of God's presence there.

Nora M. Bozeman

1. The poem shows us the details of poetry and her life.
2. The poem is not relevant because it uses exaggeration.
3. The poem inspire the magnificence of the sea, its beauty, its power. It also transmits to the reader emotions of love and peace.

