Matt: Good afternoon, Mr Graham. I want to know about the process of newspaper production. How did you produce the last piece of news about the truck accident?

Mr Graham: Well, we published it last week and we worked as a team. The process involved different stages and different staff. At 4:00 AM, the journalist went to the scene where the event had taken place. (1) When she arrived, the photographer had already taken some pictures of the accident.

Matt: What did the journalist do after she arrived on the scene?

Mr Graham: At 4:15, the _____ asked questions and recorded the information. (2) Before the interviews, she had checked her voice recorder, of course! At 5:30, the journalist wrote the news story.

Matt: Did the journalist show her article to the _____?

Mr Graham: Yes. (3) By the time the editor gave the text to the _____, he had already checked the content of the story. The graphic designer used the pictures that the _____ had sent him one hour before and selected those that best illustrated and supported the article.

Matt: What happened during the final stages of the process?

Mr Graham: Finally, the graphic designer created the page layout and produced the final version of the newspaper article. It was ready at 7:30. (4) We published the news at 8:00 after the _____ had printed it.
