

Name: _____

Date: _____

English as a Second Language
12th Grade
Topic: Imagery

Instructions: Complete the activities below.

- A. Read the first stanza of the poem "New World" by N. Scott Momaday. Then fill in the following spider diagram with the main imagery that comes to mind and continue to branch off from there. Afterwards share some of your ideas with your group.

B. Observe the image. Explain how this image makes you feel. (write at least one idea).

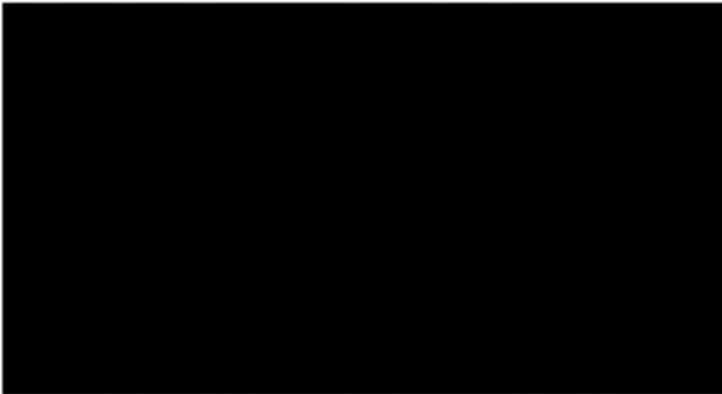

New World -Part II	Image	Explain feelings/ thoughts
At dawn eagles hie and hover above the plain where light gathers in pools.

C. Get Creative! In one short sentence, describe the scenery without using the following words:

- Meadow/ Plains

D. List details that you might hear, see, smell, or feel after watching the video. Use your own imaging and imagination

Hear: _____

See: _____

Smell: _____

Feel: _____

Create your own poem!- Use your answers from the previous exercises to construct your own short, 4-verse (line) poem.

Title: _____

