

Encik Hakimi reads a pamphlet on NGOs.

Kiwanis Down Syndrome Foundation (KDSF): Provides

educational welfare to young children with Down Syndrome and counseling to families with children with Down Syndrome. KDSF also plays a role in creating public awareness of Down Syndrome.

The Malaysian Association for the Blind (MAB): Provides rehabilitation services and courses, educational programmes, and vocational training for visually impaired people.

National Autistic Society of Malaysia (NASOM): Provides education, help, care and protection for people with autism. Autism is a brain disorder that affects a person in different ways such as learning, speaking, and social behaviour.

Persatuan Dyslexia Malaysia (PDM): Provides specific educational support for dyslexic children. Dyslexia is a reading disorder in children and adults. PDM helps dyslexic children to obtain specialised diagnosis and treatment so that their disabilities may be remedied as early as possible.

Answer the questions.

Where should this person go to if:	NGO
a. he needs to acquire knowledge and skills to find a job because he is visually challenged?
b. he has a Down Syndrome child?
c. her child is autistic?
d. his child has a problem recognising certain letters such as 'b' and 'd' while reading?

1. Why are these organizations important?

2. How do these organizations raise funds? How can you assist these NGOs?

