READING EXERCISES

Read the following passage and choose the correct answer to each of the questions.

(Đọc đoạn văn sau và lựa chọn phương án đúng cho mỗi câu hỏi.)

HAY BATH

Hay baths are a very old treatment from the mountains in the north of Italy. It's a very simple idea. Patients take off their clothes and lie in wet hay. There are flowers and plants in the hay too. It gets very hot, so it isn't always comfortable, but some people believe it is very good for your health and can cure headaches.

ICE SAUNA

Saunas are very hot places - ice is very cold. So can you build a sauna out of ice? The answer is yes! They do it in Russia and Finland during the long winters. A fire makes the sauna very warm inside: over 60°C! And because the walls are ice, you have a beautiful view of the world outside.

BEER BATH

Beer baths are a popular treatment in the Czech Republic and Austria. Hedwig Bauer has a hotel in Austria where you can have a 30-minute beer bath for 44 euros. After the bath, patients sleep for 20 minutes. Then they have a shower and go swimming. 'Beer is very good for the skin,' says Hedwig.
