

DAY 51. RELATIVE CLAUSE _ REVIEW

Exercise 1: Use relative pronoun to combine the two sentences into one sentence.

1. I have a friend. My friend lives in Mexico City.

I have a friend who lives in Mexico City.

2. Mexico City is an exciting city. The city attracts a lot of tourists.

3. Marta has a brother. Her brother's name is Manuel.

4. He works for a magazine. The magazine is very popular in Mexico.

5. Manuel writes a column. The column deals with relationships.

6. An article won a prize. The article discussed friendships.

7. A person is lucky. That person has a lot of friends.

Exercise 2: Use relative pronoun to combine the two sentences into one sentence.

1. That's the house. I grew up in the house with my sister Emilia.

That's the house that I grew up in with my sister Emilia.

2. The house was beautiful. We lived in the house.

3. Emilia and I shared a room. We spent nights talking there.

4. Across the hall, I had a good friend. I went to school with her.

5. I took piano lessons from a woman. I met her in the bakery.

6. I remember one summer. The whole family went to the lake then.

7. Those were good times. I'll always miss them.
