

DAY 51. RELATIVE CLAUSE_PRACTICE 2

EXERCISE 7 Change these sentences to make them more informal.

1. I'd like to find people with whom I can go hiking.

I'd like to find people I can go hiking with.

2. A woman with whom I work started a Meetup for young Hispanic professionals.

3. Scott Heiferman, about whom we read, is a member of a parents' Meetup.

4. He pays attention to the Meetups for which people are signing up.

5. People want to get together with others with whom they share a common interest.

6. The office in which Scott works is located in New York City.

EXERCISE 8 Change these sentences to make them more formal.

1. What is the name of the high school you graduated from?

What is the name of the high school from which you graduated?

2. He found a friend that he served in the military with.

3. I can't find the friend I was looking for.

4. The high school she graduated from was torn down.

5. Do you remember the teacher I was talking about?

6. In high school, the activities I was interested in were baseball and band.

EXERCISE 9 Fill in the blanks with whose + a word from the box.

jobs	last name	inspiration
family	interests ✓	members

1. Do you want to meet people whose interests are the same as yours?
2. I joined a French Meetup _____ speak French very well.
3. People _____ keep them busy don't always have the time or energy to get together with friends.
4. I lost touch with an old friend _____ moved to another state.
5. I'm looking for a woman _____ used to be Carter. She changed it when she got married.
6. Scott Heiferman, _____ came from the way people came together after the 9/11 tragedy, started Meetup in 2002.

EXERCISE 10 Some people were asked what kind of friends they'd like to meet. Fill in the blanks with a response, using the words given.

1. I'd like to meet people whose values are the same as mine.
Their values are the same as mine.
2. My math group is a club _____.
I found it through Meetup.
3. I'd like to find a friend _____.
I can trust that friend.
4. I don't want to be with people _____.
They don't take life seriously.
5. I want to meet people _____.
They like to play soccer.
6. I joined a Spanish Meetup _____.
Its members speak Spanish very well.
7. We meet in a coffee shop _____.
It isn't crowded in the morning.
8. I go to a book club Meetup _____.
It meets at my local library.
9. There's a Meetup for divorced people _____.
They have children.
10. I go to a Meetup for parents _____.
Their children are deaf.
11. The Meetup _____ has about 50 members.
I go to it.
12. The person _____ is a nice woman I met at a Meetup.
I play tennis with her.
13. People _____ interest me.
Their political views are similar to mine.
14. Neighbors _____ have a lot in common with me.
The neighbors have small children.