

In your English class, you have been talking about protecting the environment. Now your teacher has asked you to write an essay for homework. Write your essay.

Students should spend time at school doing activities to help protect the environment.