ANIMAL DESCRIPTION

BACKBONE	ANIMAL GROUP	REPRODUCTION	FOOD	HABITAT
It is… Vertebrate Invertebrate	It is a… Mammal Fish Reptile Bird Amphibian Arthropod Mollusc Worm	It is… Oviparous Viviparous	It eats… Plants Other animals Plants and meat So it is… a herbivore a carnivore an omnivore	It lives in the… Ocean Arctic Savannah Wetland Desert Rainforest On a farm In a house

(USE COMPARATIVES TO GIVE SOME CLUES):
It is heavier than a clown fish. / It is lighter than a blue whale.
Use some adjectives: dangerous, colourful, long/short, big/small/ pretty/ugly, tall/short…
Or you can also compare actions: It runs faster than… it swims slower than… it jumps higher than…

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION:
It has got… /It hasn't got…

Use vocabulary we've learnt: fins, gills, scales, feathers, wings, tail, dry/moist skin, fur, whiskers…

ABILITIES: What can it do?
It can… /It can't …

Use verbs you know: run, walk, fly, swim, dive, swing, slither, climb, jump…

Complete the following description of a gorilla.

It has got a backbone so it is _____.

It is a _____: their babies drink their mother's milk.

It is born from their mother's body so it is _____.

It usually eats the stems and fruits of plants, so it is a _____.

It lives in the jungle.

It is more dangerous than a cow, heavier than dog a and uglier than a tiger.

It has got fur, two arms and two legs but it hasn't got wings or feathers.

It can walk, climb trees and swing but it can't fly.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Now, describe a VULTURE following the previous example.

Talk about its backbone, animal group, reproduction, food, habitat, physical description, its abilities and DON'T FORGET TO USE COMPARATIVES!

LIVEWORKSHEETS