Comprehension Check

Yes—No:* Write yes or no on the lines.

1. Every raindrop is the same size.
2. A raindrop is first called a droplet.
3. Rain helps to wash dust, dirt, and pollen from the air.
4. Snow is frozen rain.
5. Before a snowflake can begin to form, water droplets must build around a tiny bit of dust.

Fill-In:* Write the correct answers on the lines.

1. What shape is a raindrop? _____
2. How do droplets grow large enough to form raindrops?

_____

3. Does sleet begin from snow or rain?
4. Sleet usually falls in cold weather. In what two seasons does hail fall?

   a. _____

   b. _____

5. Hail falls in what kind of storm? _____

Escaneado con CamScanner

LIVEWORKSHEETS