Stolen laptop

Owner: Leo Stevens
Interview by Police Officer Matthew Henderson
MH: When did you lose the laptop?
LS: Saturday 16 May at about 2 p.m.
MH: Where was the laptop?
LS: In a bag in The River View café.
MH: Do you often take your laptop there?
LS: Yes, I usually take it there on Saturdays. There's free Internet in the café.
MH: Can you remember who was in the café when you went to the toilet?
LS: No, I can't.

I interviewed Leo Stevens about a stolen laptop. Firstly, I asked him when [1] he had lost his laptop . He told me that he [2] _____ on Saturday 16 May at about 2 p.m. I asked him [3] _____ and he told me that it [4] _____ in the River View café. I then asked him [5] _____ his laptop to the café. He said that he [6] _____ free Internet access there. I asked Leo [7] _____ who had been in the café at the time but he said that [8] _____ .

I then ....

Debbie called. She said that she [1] has/had rung twice but you [2] didn't get/hadn't got back to her. She asked [3] are you/if you were all right. I [4] said/told her that you [5] had gone/have gone out and had left your phone at home. I said that you [6] will/would be back at about nine. She might ring back later.

Matt
Debbie rang again. She said that she [7] is/was going to bed early so might not be awake when you get home. She [8] said/told that she [9] hasn't got/didn't have any important news but just [10] wanted/wants to chat.

Matt
Debbie rang (again)! She wanted to know if you [11] can/ could send her the link to the website you [12] told/said her about at school.

Can you tell your friend that I'm your sister not your secretary!
